

Maura Neill – Speaker Bio/Introduction

BIOGRAPHY

Maura Neill (ABR, CRS, e-PRO, MRP) is a second-generation REALTOR® who combines her love for the industry with her passion for education. Before getting into the real estate business in 2001, Maura previously taught at Florida State University and University of Phoenix. She is an active agent with RE/MAX Around Atlanta, leading her team and representing buyers and sellers on a day-to-day basis, and considers education – both clients and other real estate agents – an important part of her role as a REALTOR®. Maura is a national real estate speaker and instructor on subjects such as real estate technology, building your business via social media, customer service, and client retention. She was the 2014 Georgia CRS of the Year, the 2015 Atlanta REALTORS® Association REALTOR® of the Year, and a past recipient of the Georgia REALTORS® YPN Achievers Award. Maura is a graduate of the 2016 class of the NAR Leadership Academy, and is a Platinum R RPAC investor, a member of RPAC President's Circle, and a member of the 2017 Class of the NAR RPAC Hall of Fame. A lover of all things Atlanta, Maura lives in Johns Creek, Georgia, with her husband Ben, their Beagles Charlie, Jarvis, and Bebe...and a cat who wishes to remain anonymous.

REALTOR®, Instructor, Speaker

404.919.5565 | Maura@MauraNeill.com | www.MauraNeill.com | @MauraNeill