MAR Leadership

MDIFW LANDOWNER RELATIONS PROGRAM:

The Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife's Landowner Relations Program, works to preserve Maine's unique history of public access to private land by:

- Promoting responsible land use to the public
- Educating landowners about their rights, liabilities, and options
- Forming partnerships and supporting landowners

For more information: Click Here

LANDOWNER APPRECIATION DAY IS SEPTEMBER 17:

DIFW's Outdoor Partners Program organizes an annual event to show Maine landowners their appreciation for public access to private land for recreational use. To learn more about volunteering for the Landowner Appreciation Day and Clean-Up or to have land with illegal dumping considered as a site for clean-up in 2023: Click Here

MEDIATION/OMBUDS TRAINING:

On September 7-8, MAR will be offering a two-day training with Diane Disbrow, a national educator, to expand the rosters of Professional Standards mediators and ombuds for local REALTOR® boards across Maine. The training is no-cost to you (but your time). In return, you would be willing to volunteer once or twice each year to help resolve confidential contractual disputes arising out of real estate transactions. If this type of role interests you, please contact Suzanne at MAR for additional information: Email Suzanne

ICYMI:

In case you missed MAR's previous Lunch & Learns, including Wednesday's session with NAR's David Conroy discussing Artificial Intelligence (AI) and ChatGPT, you can view their presentation slides here:

<https://www.mainerealtors.com/> (scroll to the bottom). Mark your calendars for the next MAR Lunch & Learn on October 24 with USDA Rural Development. No-cost registration is open!

CRS COURSE OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS:

Join this live class and networking event offered by the Residential Real Estate Council, "5 Steps to Success in Any Market" with national educator Addie Owens. Friday, September 8 from 9:00
