

WITH HEARTFELT
CONDOLENCES

Lewiston. October 25, 2023.

Our hearts hurt for those who died, for those who are injured, and for their loved ones who are grieving.

We feel our deepest gratitude for law enforcement officers, emergency responders, health care professionals, and local, county, state and federal officials who are working tirelessly and with such bravery to reclaim safety in our communities.

In the face of this tragedy, if you're struggling and would like confidential mental health support, call or text this Maine resource: 1-888-568-1112 No-cost help is available 24/7.

As you conduct your business, please follow the recommendations of law enforcement and be mindful of your personal safety. Additional safety resources can be found here
